David Pearson, a longstanding and dedicated member of EWIC, agreed to welcome the 17th edition of the meeting in Cambridge, on the campus of Anglia Ruskin University, in June 2020. Due to the pandemic, the meeting was postponed until there would be more certainty surrounding international travel. In the meantime, David organized a special online two-day event, which took place in 2021 via Zoom. Keynote presentations were given by Robert H. Logie and Michel Denis.

The in-person meeting was eventually organized at ARU in 2023. The program included keynote presentations by Joel Pearson (UNSW, Sydney), Emily Holmes (Uppsala), and Neil Burgess (UCL).

A well attended edition of EWIC after the hard times of the pandemic.

A strong team at the service of EWIC at ARU.

Traditional punting tour on the Cam River. Francesca Pazzaglia and Chiara Meneghetti, co-organizers of the previous EWIC in Padua, are aboard the same boat as Tina Iachini and Gennaro Ruggiero, both in charge of the coming EWIC meeting in Naples.
